

Bryobia mite

Control of summer and autumn weeds is recommended, especially capeweed and clover

Unlike most other mites, this pest can be present over summer months and declines substantially during winter

Optimal spray timing - In high risk paddocks use bifenthrin or omethoate

Critical monitoring period for this pest