

Lucerne flea

In wet seasons or under irrigation, lucerne flea can hatch in late summer

In late spring, use grazing to reduce pest habitat in problematic areas

Optimal spray timing - Target late stage nymphs and consider 'spot' spraying. Do not use synthetic pyrethroids

Critical monitoring period for this pest